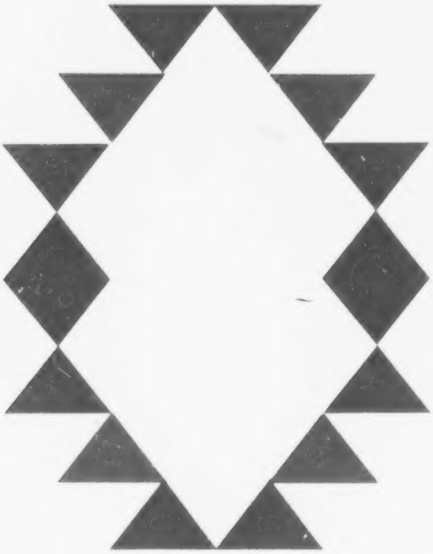
THE ARIZONA COURTS



1991 JUDICIAL REPORT

A Message from the Chief Justice

It is my pleasure to submit this annual report on the activities of the Judicial branch in Arizona for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1990 and ending June 30, 1991.

It is also with some sense of pride that I submit this report as my final annual report as Chief Justice. Being Arizona's Chief Justice has been one of the greatest and most challenging experiences of my life. Not only has it been an honor to preside over the court system in Arizona, but it has been a challenge to try and guide it in directions where it could be improved.

The system has seen many changes over the past five years. Inertia within the system has been overcome and changes brought about with positive consensus by judges and support staff throughout the judiciary. More changes are in process. None of these changes would have been possible without the cooperative efforts of competent professionals working throughout the system. Arizona's judiciary is widely known for its progressive attitude toward change for improvement.

This report contains statistics concerning almost 1.8 million cases. When a case is filed and the issues are joined, the parties, as well as society, expect the dispute to be resolved speedily, efficiently, and fairly, and that it be dealt with individually, as though it were the only matter before the Court. Those are high expectations and great responsibilities, ones imposed by the constitutions of the United States and the State of Arizona, and by American tradition.

Those responsibilities are assumed by the people who work in Arizona's courts. The numbers in this report not only represent the will of society to have justice openly and fairly administered, but they also represent the efforts of the court employees throughout Arizona who see to it on a day-to-day basis that the interests of their community are served.

I believe the Arizona judiciary should be proud. I feel proud and honored to have been given the chance to serve the people of Arizona as their Chief Justice. It is my fond hope that both the Legislature and the Governor of Arizona will continue supporting the Judicial department, so that we may maintain what I consider to be the highest quality state judiciary in this country.

Administrative Director's Report

It's human nature to avoid scrutiny and criticism, and, often, institutions can take on this very human characteristic.

The court system did. For a long time the Arizona court system was content to keep to itself and operate in a legal sanctuary rarely seen by the public.

This is not necessarily healthy for the courts or for society. Fortunately for Arizona, it has had a leader in the court system who recognized this. If there is a legacy that Chief Justice Frank X. Gordon, Jr., will leave as he retires from the bench it is that he has opened the administration of courts to more people and more groups.

Chief Justice Gordon has been reluctant to take credit for achievements made in the court system in the past five years. He says that the accomplishments couldn't have been possible without the hard work and effort of court personnel throughout the state and the many volunteers who sat on committees and commissions of the courts. That's true. But it was under the Chief Justice's leadership that the changes were possible. He wanted to see positive improvements in the administration of the judicial system and he had the foresight, fortitude and guts to go after it.

When I think of Chief Justice Gordon's term, I think of innovations that are now fixtures in the administration of our courts - each opening the doors of the courts wider. Here are a few:

- Establishment of the Council on Judicial Administration which later evolved into the Arizona Judicial Council. The AJC is an advisory council to the Arizona Supreme Court on administrative policies and procedures impacting all courts in the state. Its membership includes judges, attorneys and public members.

- Statewide implementation of the Principles of Alphabet Literacy System. PALS is a literacy program for probationers using an interactive computer. The program, which targets illiteracy as a link to crime, has spread to nearly 30 labs throughout the state.

- The Commission on the Courts and court reform. Fifty recommendations to improve the court system were born from an 18-month study of the system by the commission. Many of the recommendations which improve access, efficiency and productivity of the courts have been implemented. An offshoot of court reform efforts was the creation of local judicial advisory committees in most counties (see "A Year in Review" later in this report).

- Court Rule 28 was established to allow anyone, individuals or organizations, to petition the Supreme Court to propose changes or comment on proposed changes in court rules.

- The continued expansion of judicial education programs and the expansion of staff training throughout the state.

Also during his tenure, Chief Justice Gordon initiated an annual State of the Judiciary Message to the Legislature to inform them of court activities; he invited full media coverage of the selection process for Supreme Court justices; he encouraged the expansion of the Court's Bench Press publication to include all court employees in the state, the Legislature, all libraries and the media; and he personally visited all the Superior Courts and other courts to get a better understanding of programs and problems.

It's not surprising that many of these advancements parallel the goals Chief Justice Gordon set forth at the beginning of his term. The major themes in his goals were to improve performance of the court system, improve the public's attitudes and perceptions of the judicial system's role, and provide a broad based review of the judiciary for how the system should be structured, managed and operated into the 21st century.

From the beginning of this term to the end, it's evident that Chief Justice Gordon truly cares about the Arizona court system, its people and the people it serves. And although it may be against the laws of human nature to do so, he truly wanted people's input and sought ways to get it. I personally dedicate this report to retiring Chief Justice Gordon. It documents many accomplishments and progress the court system has achieved during his term, and a legacy which the Chief Justice should be proud.

ARIZONA JUDICIAL COUNCIL

The Arizona Judicial Council is an advisory council on administration to the Arizona Supreme Court. The council meets four times a year to review policies, procedures and issues affecting the entire Arizona Court system.

The 12-member council represents all levels of the court system and includes public members. It is supported by three main committees – Appellate, Superior and Limited Jurisdiction – and various subcommittees. The committee structure is as follows:

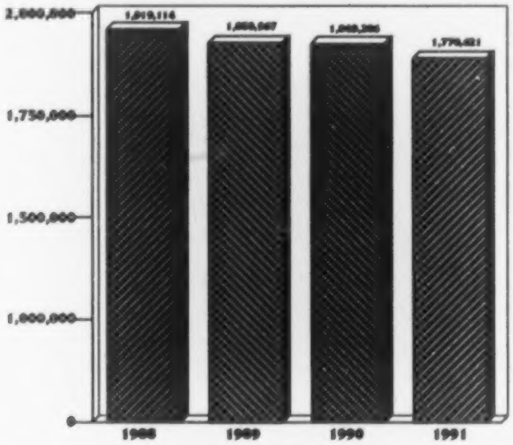
TOTALS: CASE FILINGS, REVENUES & EXPENDITURES

* Filings



Case statistics reported by Arizona courts indicate that total case filings from the state's five court levels decreased to 1.78 million in fiscal year 1991 from 1.84 million in fiscal year 1990. It marked the third year that there was a decrease in total case filings.

Filings increased at the Supreme Court, Court of Appeals and Superior Court while overall decreases occurred in Justice of the Peace and Municipal Courts. There were notable increases in domestic relations cases and notable decreases in traffic cases.

* Revenues

As promised by Chief Justice Frank X. Gordon, Jr., in his State of the Judiciary message in 1989, Arizona courts' revenues topped the $100 million mark -- but much earlier than he predicted. Figures compiled from all the courts in the state indicate that the final 1991 fiscal year revenue numbers are over $109 million.

The Chief Justice said he hoped that by doing a better job of enforcing court orders the courts would top $100 million by 1993. This goal has been reached two years early.

Total Arizona Court Revenues

1988 - $71,829,829
1989 - $84,416,931
1990 - $95,359,818
1991 - $109,430,190

Total Court System Expenditures

1988 - $175,315,581
1989 - $189,795,250
1990 - $215,862,120
1991 - $252,303,213

CONTINUATION OF COURT REFORM EFFORTS

Court reform efforts that began in the latter part of the 1980's thrived in 1991. The year saw the culmination of many proposals that were suggested to improve the court system and prime the courts for the next century.

Over half of the 50 proposals that the Arizona Supreme Court approved in 1989 were accomplished by the end of the fiscal year. The proposals that the Court considered came from the Commission on the Courts which conducted an 18-month study of the entire state court system and made recommendations for court reform and improvement.

Some of the highlights of court reform efforts during the year include:

* Judicial Performance Review Committee

Arizona Supreme Court Justice Robert J. Corcoran is chairman of the 22-member committee of judges, lawyers and public members which was established Spring 1991. The committee's goal is to develop a judicial review process that gives judges and the public adequate information about judicial ability and performance.

"The public needs a more effective way of rating its judges," Justice Corcoran said. "Polls from attorneys only are limited in scope. We need to consider input from others who interact with judges such as jurors, victims, witnesses, law enforcement officers, and court staff. Citizens should have a truer measure of a judge's ability when it's time to vote."

It is expected that the committee will develop a proposed process and pilot project beginning in 1992. The committee's recommendation will be given to the Supreme Court for review.

* Research projects and pilot programs

There are many programs underway throughout the court system that can be attributed to court reform efforts including feasibility studies in at least six counties concerning consolidation of court operations.

* Community advisory groups established

A valuable outcome of the court reform efforts that flourished in 1991 was the establishment of citizen advisory committees in each county in the state.

As a means to promote community involvement in the courts, these groups advise the presiding judge on community concerns in response to court reform proposals and other court-related issues.

There is a wide cross section of citizens on each committee. They include mayors, police chiefs, farmers, reporters, stock brokers, clergy, attorneys, retirees, business owners, educators, high school students, judges, tribal court representatives, city and county officials, civic group representatives and others.

The committees meet regularly to discuss court issues affecting the community. Even though the local judicial advisory committees were created as a result of court reform, it is expected that the committees will continue and will act in an advisory role for court issues.

By the year's end, 12 local judicial advisory committees were operating throughout the state. Here are some of the activities of the committees...

Coconino County now has a commission to help select judges, thanks to the efforts of its committee.

The committee was also responsible for the renovation of the Superior Court's jury box to make it wheelchair accessible.

"Most special local committees fail because they either lack direction or the scope of their project is too large," said William Garbarino, presiding superior court judge. "It is my intention that the committee undertake specific projects which can, in reality, be accomplished."

A commission to select candidates for vacant superior court and justice court positions was created by the advisory committee. This commission screens and selects finalists for the judicial positions; their recommendations are then turned over to the County Board of Supervisors.

In Maricopa County, committee members have examined issues, including:

- judicial selection, retention and performance,
- unified trial court and elected officials,
- and access, such as court process/delay reduction, alternative dispute resolution, technology and public awareness.

The committee has had several presentations on legislative issues at its monthly meetings covering topics such as domestic violence and unification of trial courts.

The Pima County committee has been involved in several projects aimed at easing the public's access and lack of information about the courts.

Some of the projects include:

- a plan of accepting court payments by credit cards
- issuing marriage licenses at all courts in the county
- a uniform bond schedule
- enlarging the court's speakers bureau for high schools and civic groups
- developing a juror handbook and materials with juror information.

A telecommunications system connecting courts and jails is a vision of the Mohave County committee. Three areas of focus - facilities, legal process and communications - have been identified by the team. Connecting courts to jails through telecommunications would be a cooperative effort between the cities and the county and would encompass the three areas.

The committee kept busy touring all the court facilities in the county as well as meeting with the city councils in Bullhead City and Lake Havasu City and the Mohave County Board of Supervisors.

In Santa Cruz County, the County Board of Supervisors threw its support behind the local committee and its effort to make the court system more accessible and less expensive for county residents.

The committee met regularly and the initial sessions centered on discussions of changes needed in the local courts.

Among the improvements the committee will pursue are:

- the establishment of a conciliation court
- a detailed bilingual directory for the county complex
- a court information desk in the superior court building
- and a videotape library for self-help.

Endorsements from the committee in Yavapai County have come on the issues of:

- the district court concept for the county
- merit selection process for superior court judges
- and the inclusion of Yavapai judges in the Arizona Supreme Court pilot project concerning judicial performance review.

LEGISLATION

Nearly all the legislation supported by the Arizona Judicial Council on behalf of the court system passed during the 1991 Arizona legislative session. The major enactments included legislation dealing with:

- alternative dispute resolution
- jury management
- conciliation courts
- child support guidelines
- court appointed special advocate program.

In addition, bills passed which impact the courts in the areas of:

- domestic violence
- youth gang prevention
- Victims' Bill of Rights.

* Legislation boosts the ADR movement

In a speech to the Arizona Coalition on Dispute Resolution, Chief Justice Frank X. Gordon, Jr., said, "Courts will no longer simply be a place where people are told what to do all the time. One of the theories of alternative dispute resolution in the courts is that when people have a say in determining the outcome of their situation, as in arbitration or mediation, in the public's eye it's not just government rendering a decision. The people actually have a say in any compromise and it puts citizens and government on a more equal level."

Justice Gordon was talking about the passage of a bill that will increase alternative dispute resolution options for courts. As the first piece of legislation enacted as a result of the Commission on the Courts study two years ago, the signing of the ADR bill was an important step in the court system's reform effort to meet the needs of the public. In addition to creating alternatives, the bill also created a fund that courts may use in setting up court-annexed ADR programs.

ADR is becoming a necessity for justice courts because in addition to the bill during the fiscal year, there was legislation last year that increased the jurisdictional limit for justice of the peace courts to $5,000. This may significantly increase justice courts' caseloads. Fortunately, that statute also allows justice courts to use more ADR methods.

VICTIMS' RIGHTS ADVANCED

In the 1990 election, Arizona voters approved a proposed constitutional amendment creating the Victims' Bill of Rights. Subsequently, the Arizona Legislature, with the support of the court system, enacted procedural laws to implement the amendment to the state constitution.

In the legislation the rights of victims are defined, and the responsibilities of law enforcement agencies, prosecutors, Department of Corrections, Board of Pardons and Parole and the courts in meeting the rights of victims are specified. Also, the act established a Victims' Rights Fund through a $25 surcharge on most misdemeanor offenses. Additionally, the legislation created a joint study committee to study post-conviction relief proceedings.

GANG PROBLEMS ADDRESSED

Arizona courts are becoming more active in prevention of gang problems with the establishment of the Gang Strategy Steering Committee during the year. This committee is studying Arizona's gang problem and has made recommendations to the Supreme Court on how money in the Juvenile Crime Reduction Fund can be used to address these problems.

The committee began work by visiting successful gang prevention programs in the Los Angeles area. Based on reports from other metropolitan areas, the committee has been assessing Arizona's needs and possible development or adoption of programs.

One of the committee's projects involved the disbursement of funds to recreational facilities in Arizona to extend hours during the summer months in hopes of curbing gang problems. The Legislature approved $300,000 to be allocated to recreational facilities in counties cited as having the largest concentration of identified gangs. Eligible counties were Maricopa, Pima, Pinal and Yuma.

The Gang Strategy Steering Committee studied the applications and as a result 19 facilities in the state were able to utilize the funds.

COLLECTIONS CONTINUE TO IMPROVE

* Overall Increase

Statewide court revenue statistics for fiscal 1991 spell good news for the court system's effort to carry out court orders and improve collections. The statistics indicate that overall court revenue collections have increased 52 percent since 1988, from $71.8 million to $109.4 million.

It's worthy to note that within that same time period, restitution payments have increased 77 percent and child support payment collections have improved 71 percent.

* Judicial Collection Enhancement Fund grants hits $2 million mark

When it was established two years ago, the Judicial Collection Enhancement Fund opened the doors for many courts to begin effective collections programs to carry out orders of the courts and increase productivity.

As a result of statewide grants from the JCEF many new and innovative collections programs have been established in Arizona's courts over the past few years.

By the end of the fiscal year the Judicial Collection Enhancement Fund reported that over $2 million in grants had been allocated for courts throughout the state since July 1990.

Projects aimed at collection and management of monies including restitution, child support, fines and civil penalties have been funded by JCEF. Many projects deal with automation.

Some of these projects include:

Yuma Municipal Court - Funds were provided to hire a law enforcement officer, through the police department, to serve failure to appear warrants and to collect delinquent payments.

Phoenix Municipal Court - Funds were provided to assist the court in a two-phased program to collect up to $50 million in outstanding fines. Phase I was an amnesty program that reduced delinquent fines by up to 50 percent if they were paid during the program period. Phase II was an increased enforcement program using officers to serve failure to pay warrants on people who did not come forward during Phase I. Early reports on the program showed collections of $2.5 million during Phase I.

Kingman Justice Court - The court was provided funds to hire a collection investigator and warrant officer. The collections investigator established programs to monitor payments and decrease deferred payments. The warrant officer served failure to pay warrants and worked with defendants who were delinquent to establish payment plans.

* JCEF highlights

* Justice and municipal courts have received over $1.5 million in JCEF and Traffic Case Processing Fund grants to fund various projects.

* JCEF, which receives its funds through court fees and surcharges, has generated over $3.8 million since its inception in July 1989. Three dollars of an $8 time payment fee accounted for $1.1 million, a 15 percent fee surcharge brought in $1.7 million, and $5 of a $15 defensive driving fee provided $1 million.

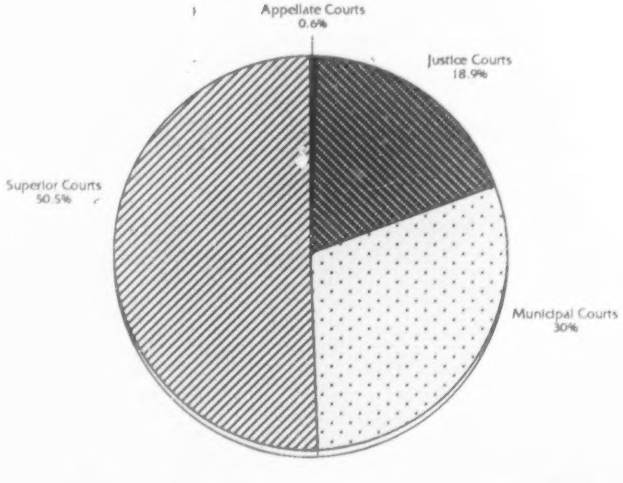
* Of the total $2.8 million (see graphic at bottom) from the time payment fee and the fee surcharge, the appellate courts contributed .6 percent, the justice courts contributed 18.9 percent, the municipal courts contributed 30 percent and superior courts submitted 50.5 percent. The $1 million from the defensive driving fee is generated through the Municipal and Justice of the Peace courts.

* During the fiscal year a JCEF Advisory Committee was formed and began meeting to set direction for future funding priorities.

* Collections legislation

Even the Arizona Legislature endorsed this wave of improving collections in the courts. During the legislative session a bill was passed that, essentially, allows courts to reduce a fine if that is the only way to collect it. The act allows courts to reduce civil sanctions by five percent if they are paid the day imposed. It also allows courts, with Supreme Court approval, to conduct programs to reduce outstanding fines more than 12 months delinquent, by reducing the amount due by up to 50 percent.

HOW JCEF GETS ITS FUNDS



OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

* Innovative projects underway

* Several projects began aimed at cutting the time and money it takes to resolve civil disputes in the state. These included:

- A pilot project in Maricopa County Superior Court testing rules that prime cases for early settlement

- The development of case processing time standards that provide goals for all courts in a variety of cases

* The Arizona Supreme Court and the Department of Public Safety began a pilot project in two courts to test a traffic citation form which allows up to five citations on a page.

* A project to improve technology in cash management and collection of child support payments in Arizona courts began. The Superior Court Clerks' Automation Project is aimed at selecting compatible computer equipment and services that all court offices may use to manage child support information and court collections.

* Risk management/security guidelines for all courts were approved by the Arizona Supreme Court. The guidelines identify areas of liability and vulnerability and offer suggestions on how to reduce risks.

* A group consisting of limited jurisdiction court employees throughout the state was established to assist in statewide automation planning. The Lower Court Automation Through Education - LOCATE - Group will help the Arizona Supreme Court in selecting computer equipment and services that all courts may be able to use.

* Statewide standards were developed for determining the indigence of defendants and collections procedures and public defender fees. The standards will be tested in at least two pilot projects in the next year.

* A records management report approved by the Arizona Supreme Court and subsequent administrative orders allows courts to purge many outdated records.

* Court Expansions

* New Courts: Fountain Hills Municipal Court; Quartzsite Municipal Court; Maryvale Justice of the Peace Court; South Mesa/Gilbert Justice of the Peace Court; North Mesa Justice of the Peace Court.

* The Arizona State Courts Building opened in Phoenix. The 236,500 square ft. building houses the Arizona Supreme Court, the Court of Appeals Division One, the Administrative Office of the Courts, the Commission on Judicial Conduct, the State Law Library and other state agencies.

* Mohave County Superior Court doubled its size by opening two new courtrooms. The court, based in Kingman, has three judges and a pro tempore judge.

* Yavapai County Superior Court in Prescott added a fourth division. Also, the Yavapai County Juvenile Court facility expanded by 6,000 square feet providing space for 30 detainees and additional office space.

* Maricopa County Superior Court expanded with the completion of a new county government building in Mesa. The building has 76,000 sq. ft allocated to the court, including 15 courtrooms.

* In Gila County, new offices opened for Superior Court and the adult probation department in Payson, a new field office for probation in Globe and new offices for the Hayden-Winkelman probation office.

THE ARIZONA COURTS
FY 91 Data Report

Statistical Addendum to the FY 91 Judicial Report

INTRODUCTION

This report, The Arizona Courts: FY 1991 Data Report, presents caseload information for all court levels, providing both statewide summary and detailed information on individual courts. It is intended to supplement the FY 91 Judicial Report for persons and agencies who are interested in or involved with budgeting, planning and administration for Arizona courts.

The term "FY 91" in this report refers to the period beginning July 1, 1990 and ending June 30, 1991. All tables reflect this fiscal year period.

The sections in this report include: appellate courts, tax court, superior court, adult probation, juvenile court/probation, justice of the peace courts and municipal courts. For easy reference, each section is identified by the appropriate heading located near the bottom of each divider page.

Caseload statistics are compiled from monthly statistical reports submitted to the Supreme Court by the individual appellate, tax, superior, justice of the peace and municipal courts and each probation department. Incomplete or inconsistent information, where detected, is footnoted. While the statistics are checked for mathematical accuracy, they are unaudited. Justice of the peace and municipal court criminal statistics reflect "complaint filings" while superior court criminal and juvenile petition figures show the number of "persons" charged.

Financial and Personnel

COURT EXPENDITURES
Narrative Summary

The statewide expenditure information is provided here for each of the court levels comprising the Arizona judiciary. The first table shows specific line-item expenditures for FY 91. These data were compiled from Supreme Court financial records and responses to the Supreme Court survey of expenditures distributed in July 1991, and are unaudited by the Supreme Court.

Major expenditure categories shown on the tables represent monies from four sources:

> PRIMARY BUDGET: Expenditures from appropriated funds from the court's primary funding source, either the state (Supreme Court and Court of Appeals), the county (Superior and Justice Courts), or the city or town (Municipal Courts);
> STATE PROGRAM FUNDS: Expenditures from state program monies begun or renewed by the Arizona legislature and distributed to the courts;
> FEDERAL FUNDS: Expenditures from federal program monies begun or renewed by the U.S. Congress and distributed to state agencies;
> LOCALLY-RETAINED FEES: Expenditures from collections authorized by statute to reimburse all or part of the expenses of probation services.

Primary budget categories are kept as general as possible because line-item definitions for the state, the 15 counties, and the 83 municipalities that constitute Arizona primary funding sources vary widely.

Total expenditures in the Arizona courts increased from $215,862,120 to $252,303,213 in FY 91, an increase of 16.9%. Primary budget expenditures of $185,020,637 account for 73.3% of the total. Salary expenditures of $107,057,595 account for the largest portion of this category.

Outside primary budget expenditures, state program funds account for the next largest group; $61,299,237, or 24.3%. Federal, fee and other monies together account for the remaining 2.4%.

The second table shows this year's state funding contribution to the Arizona courts was $75,041,806, or 29.7%, compared to the previous year's 27.9%. The amount of state monies, however, increased from $60,151,426 in FY 90, or 24.8%.

The counties' contribution was proportionally slightly up from last year, 55.9% versus 55.0% in FY 90. The amount of county money expended increased from $122,409,804 to $140,943,364, or 15.1%.

The percentage of municipal funds expended by the courts dropped slightly, from 15.0% in FY 90 to 13.8% in FY 91. Actual municipal monies expended rose from $32,042,684 to $34,910,788 in FY 91, or by 9.0%.

Over two-thirds (71%) of the total FY 91 judicial expenditures were for services at the superior court level, slightly higher than last year's proportion (69.5%).

Subsequent tables show detailed expenditure data for each court.

COURT REVENUE
Narrative Summary

The statewide revenue data is provided here for each level of the Arizona courts. The first table shows the source and distribution of revenues collected by courts in FY 91. The figures were compiled from fee reports and the annual revenue survey distributed by the Supreme Court in July 1991, and are unaudited.

Major revenue categories shown on the tables represent monies collected from five sources:

FINES, SANCTIONS, MONETARY ASSESSMENTS AND FORFEITURES: Revenue from monetary penalties assessed in criminal, traffic, and juvenile matters, and bond monies that were forfeited;

SURCHARGES: Revenue from monetary assessments authorized by statute above and beyond criminal and traffic penalties and certain civil and other fees;

FEES: Revenue from collectible fees for services of the court and chargeable aspects of case processing;

OTHER REVENUE: Revenue from sources not otherwise specified;

LOCALLY-RETAINED COLLECTIONS: Revenue from collections authorized by statute to reimburse all or part of the expenditures of probation services.

Total revenues collected by the Arizona courts increased from $95,359,818 in FY 90 to $109,430,190 in FY 91, a rise of 14.8%.

The first table shows that the monetary penalty category ("FINES,SANCTIONS,...") accounts for $59,171,945, or 54.1% of the total. Most of these penalty monies ($33,747,619, or 57%) went to city general funds, with the next highest amount ($16,685,017), or 28.2%) to county general funds.

The second largest revenue category is surcharges, containing $25,524,353, or 23.3% of the total revenue. Most of this category is the Criminal Justice Enhancement Fund ($16,129,506, or 63.2%), followed by the Emergency Medical Services Fund ($1,825,753, or 7.2%).

Fees make up the third largest segment of court revenues, a total of $18,824,230, or 17.2%. The largest part of these are civil case filing and appearance fees ($5,553,556, or 30%).

Locally-retained probation collections and other revenues constitute the remaining 5.4% of all court revenues.

The second table shows that cities and towns receive the largest part of court revenue; $41,241,386, or 37.7%. This amount increased from $33,527,478 in FY 90. This revenue level was achieved despite a 46,000+ decrease in total filings in the municipal courts.

Counties were the second largest beneficiaries of court revenue, receiving $36,135,540, or 33%. This figure is up from $33,120,035 in FY 90. Superior court revenues to the counties increased in FY 91 along with their filings. Justice court revenues to the counties in FY 91 also increased (to a lesser extent) in spite of a decline in total filings.

The state of Arizona received $32,053,264, or 29.3%, of the total court revenues, primarily from surcharges in all trial courts. The actual amount of these distributions rose from $28,712,305 last year. Increased revenue to the state between FY 90 and FY 91 occurred at all court levels irrespective of filings, primarily due to increased Drug Enforcement and JCEF collections.

Almost half ($53,950,251, or 49.3%) of all court revenue is generated by the municipal courts, up very slightly from the 48.6% recorded in FY 90.

The third table (on the same page) shows that the Arizona courts processed $231,947,747 in "pass-through" trust monies, the majority ($162,436,413) being child-support payments processed through Superior court.

Subsequent tables show detailed revenue data for each court.

COURT PERSONNEL
Narrative Summary

The statewide summary reflects all court positions as of June 30, 1991, including positions funded from both primary and non-primary budget sources. The information was reported by the individual courts in response to the Supreme Court personnel survey mailed in July, 1991.

The total number of persons working full-time in the Arizona judicial system increased from 5,170 in FY 90 to 5344 in FY 91, a 3.4% increase.

The 3.4% increase in full-time personnel appears to be distributed over most of the categories. Most of the rise occurred in the categories of Deputy Clerk, (1312 to 1422 in FY 91), Judicial Secretary/Other Court Administrative (589 to 596 in FY 91), and Juvenile Detention Officer (221 to 254 in FY 91). The courts employed an additional 814 part-time personnel, compared to 731 in FY 90. There appears to be moderate increases in part-time personnel distributed over many categories.

The courts also had the services of 634 regular volunteers, compared to 838 in FY 90, a decrease of 24.3%. These volunteers include attorneys, court reporters, teachers, information desk personnel, Court Appointed Special Advocates, Foster Care Review Board members, and other professionals and non-professionals who serve as pro-tempore magistrates.

Arizona Tax Court

ARIZONA TAX COURT
Narrative Summary

The Arizona Tax Court, created in 1988, serves as the statewide venue for all civil actions involving a tax, impost, or assessment. Suits may be filed using a simplified "small claims" procedure when the amount of tax is less than $5,000 or the dispute concerns valuations or classifications of property with a market value of $100,000 or less. Otherwise, cases are filed as "cases of record". The court is physically located within and administered by the Superior Court of Maricopa County, and appeals of Tax Court cases are heard in a special department of Division One of the Court of Appeals.

A total of 1,778 cases were filed (including 12 reopenings) in the Arizona Tax Court during FY 91, representing a 34.9% increase over the 1,318 cases filed in FY 90. In FY 91, 1,719 (96.7%) were cases of record. Property tax actions constituted the majority (1,666, or 93.7%) of all filings. Cases from Maricopa and Pima counties accounted for 1,660 (93.4%) of these filings.

During FY 91, a total of 1,534 cases were terminated, 1,182 (77.1%) by judgment, including 4 written opinions. As of June 30, 1991, there were 1,310 cases pending in the Tax Court.

Juvenile Court/Probation

JUVENILE COURT/PROBATION
Narrative Summary

The number of new referrals to juvenile probation rose from 51,063 in FY 90 to 53,435 in FY 91, a 4.6% increase. In all, 33.7% of these (18,010) ended in formal petitions being filed, up (20.2%) from the 14,981 resulting in petitions last year. These petitions were filed on 13,396 juveniles, up 28.4% from the 10,435 corresponding FY 90 figure. (Multiple referrals against the same juvenile normally result in only one petition.)

A total of 13,070 petitions were terminated during FY 91, which is 24.7% more than the FY 90 figure of 10,485. Of these, 9,286 (71.1%) resulted in adjudication, either by the juvenile's admission (8,719) or following a hearing (567). This number is 23.1% above the 7,543 reported in FY 90.

In all, 8,799 juveniles received dispositions following adjudication. This compares to 7,240 in FY 90, and represents a 21.5% increase. The majority of these FY 91 dispositions (4,771, or 54.2%) concerned probation or probation with restitution, with an additional 1,767 youths (20.1%) being continued on their current probation. There were 4,000 youths removed from probation in FY 91, up 1.8% from the 3,929 terminated in FY 90. (These include terminations, revocations, and transfers.)

In FY 91, 17,423 youths were held in detention for varying periods of time. This is 7.5% greater than the 16,212 figure for FY 90. Where it has been classified, most detention is pre-adjudicatory.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS
Narrative Summary

Total filings (including transfers in) decreased 4.1 %, from 638,114 to 612,103.

Traffic cases comprise two-thirds of the workload in justice courts. Total traffic filings showed a decrease, from 421,750 in FY 90 to 404,513 (down 4.1%) in FY 91. D.U.I. and civil traffic categories increased (up 8.8% and 0.3% respectively) and criminal traffic decreased (down 7.4%). Criminal cases increased marginally by 0.1%, from 96,192 last year to 96,307 in FY 91. Civil cases showed a decrease, from 120,172 in FY 90 to 111,283 (down 7.4%) this year. Decreases were seen in small claims, civil suits and forcible detainers.

Domestic violence petition filings in justice courts increased from 4,420 in FY 90 to 4,799 in FY 91. Harassment petitions also increased, from 3,311 in FY 90 to 3,694 in FY 91. As with all courts, few are denied.

Total case dispositions (including transfers) decreased from 612,638 last year to 604,062 in FY 91. Traffic case dispositions decreased overall by 7.6% (413,619 last year versus 382,285), as well as by individual category. Criminal case dispositions increased from 83,310 to 85,440 between the two years, or by 2.6%. Increases in misdemeanor and failure-to-appear (FTA) categories offset a decrease in the felony category. Civil case dispositions show an increase of 17.8% (115,709 to 136,337).

There is a 1.5% decrease in end-of-year pending cases, down from 389,005 in FY 90 to 383,142 in FY 91.
